Bible Characters — Answer Key

Did you know?

- Moses is one of the most frequently referenced figures across the entire Bible, appearing throughout both the Old and New Testaments.
- Several women in the Bible, like Deborah and Esther, are described taking on significant leadership roles in their communities.
- Many Bible characters are described by name only briefly, with just a single verse or mention, despite playing a specific role in a larger story.
- Family lineage and genealogy are recorded in detail throughout several books of the Bible, tracing specific figures across many generations.
