Did you know?

- In some countries, Christmas gifts are exchanged on a different day entirely, such as January 6th, the Feast of the Epiphany.
- Because Christmas falls in the Southern Hemisphere's summer, some countries there celebrate with beach parties instead of the wintry imagery common elsewhere.
- Some cultures observe distinct food traditions on Christmas, from specific fish dishes to particular baked goods unique to that region.
- Santa Claus is known by different names and slightly different traditions in various countries, such as Pere Noel in France.
