Christmas Carols — Answer Key

Did you know?

- Many well-known Christmas carols, like "Silent Night," were originally written in languages other than English.
- Caroling door-to-door has roots in older European traditions of wassailing, going house to house singing in exchange for food or drink.
- Some of today's most popular Christmas songs were actually written and released in the 20th century, not centuries ago.
- Church choirs have performed religious Christmas music for centuries, predating many of the more secular songs popular today.
