Christmas Dinner & Treats — Answer Key

Did you know?

- Turkey became a common Christmas dinner centerpiece in many English-speaking countries partly due to its practical size for large family gatherings.
- Traditional Christmas puddings and fruitcakes are often made weeks or even months in advance, since the flavor deepens with aging.
- Many countries have their own specific traditional Christmas dish, from ham to fish to tamales, rather than a single universal meal.
- Eggnog, a traditional Christmas drink in some regions, has roots in older European drinks made with milk, eggs and spirits.
