Easter Eggs — Answer Key

Did you know?

- Pysanky is the name for traditional Ukrainian Easter eggs decorated with wax-resist dyeing, some patterns dating back centuries.
- Eggs have symbolized new life and rebirth in many cultures long before they became associated specifically with Easter.
- The famous Faberge eggs were jeweled creations made as gifts for the Russian imperial family, not folk Easter eggs made at home.
- Dyeing eggs with onion skins was a common natural method long before synthetic egg dyes were sold in stores.
