Did you know?

- The Easter egg hunt tradition is often traced back to Germany, alongside the older legend of the egg-laying hare.
- The White House has held an annual Easter Egg Roll on its lawn since 1878, a tradition distinct from a typical backyard hunt.
- Many modern egg hunts use plastic eggs filled with treats instead of real dyed eggs, a newer variation on the older tradition.
- A hidden golden egg is a common twist in many organized hunts, often worth a bigger prize than the rest.
