Memorial Day — Answer Key

Did you know?

- Memorial Day is observed on the last Monday of May; it became an official federal holiday in 1971, when Congress moved it to a Monday.

- It began as Decoration Day: General John A. Logan, a leader of Union veterans, named May 30, 1868, as a day to decorate the graves of Civil War soldiers.

- In 1966, Congress and President Lyndon B. Johnson recognized Waterloo, New York, as the official birthplace of Memorial Day.

- Since 2000, the National Moment of Remembrance has asked Americans to pause for one minute at 3 p.m. local time on Memorial Day.
