Pumpkins — Answer Key

Did you know?

- Pumpkins belong to the same plant family as cucumbers, squash and melons.
- The record for the world's largest pumpkin now exceeds 2,000 pounds, grown through specialized techniques by competitive growers.
- Carving pumpkins into lanterns is believed to trace back to an Irish folk tale about a man named Jack.
- Pumpkins are over 90 percent water by weight, part of why they're so heavy relative to their size.
