Spring Cleaning — Answer Key

Did you know?

- Spring cleaning traditions with real historical roots appear in multiple cultures, including thorough home cleaning tied to Persian Nowruz and pre-Passover cleaning in Jewish tradition.
- One practical historical origin for spring cleaning was simply opening windows and airing out homes after a winter of coal or wood smoke buildup indoors.
- Decluttering and organizing physical spaces has been linked in real studies to measurable improvements in mood and reduced stress.
- The specific phrase "spring cleaning" entered common English usage by the 1800s, though the underlying practice is considerably older.
