Thanksgiving Dinner & Food — Answer Key

Did you know?

- Many classic Thanksgiving side dishes, like sweet potato casserole and green bean casserole, actually became popular relatively recently, in the 20th century.
- Cranberry sauce is one of the few Thanksgiving dishes made from a fruit genuinely native to North America.
- Pumpkin pie has been associated with the holiday for centuries, though early versions differed significantly from the modern dessert.
- Leftover turkey sandwiches have become almost as much a part of the holiday tradition as the meal itself.
