Thanksgiving Parade — Answer Key

Did you know?

- Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City, one of the most famous, has been held annually since 1924.
- Giant character balloons, a signature feature of major Thanksgiving parades, require large teams of handlers to safely guide them through city streets.
- Some Thanksgiving parades have run for many decades, making them a genuine multi-generational family tradition in certain cities.
- Weather, especially wind, is a major planning factor for parades, since large balloons can be difficult and even dangerous to fly safely in high winds.
