Did you know?

- Esther Howland, an American businesswoman in the 1800s, is widely credited as a pioneer of the American mass-produced valentine card industry.
- Elaborate, decorated paper valentines became especially fashionable during the Victorian era, well before today's printed cards.
- Classroom card exchanges are often specifically encouraged to be inclusive, with every student giving and receiving a card, rather than only a few.
- The specific look and messages on valentine cards have shifted with popular culture over the decades, from Victorian lace to today's licensed cartoon characters.
