Witches — Answer Key

Did you know?

- Historical witch trials, including the well-known Salem witch trials in colonial Massachusetts, resulted in real executions based on unproven accusations.
- The stereotypical image of a witch with a pointed hat and broomstick largely developed through folklore and later popular media, not historical record.
- Many cultures have their own distinct folklore traditions involving figures with magical powers, not limited to the Western witch archetype.
- Modern Wicca, a real religious movement, is distinct from the folkloric or fictional witches often depicted at Halloween.
